

0305

December 2006

Location: Chicago, IL

Victim(s): Urszula Sakowska 23

Attacker(s): Anthony Triplett

Description: Triplett, already suspected in another rape and murder that occurred weeks earlier, still worked as cable installer, and was let into Urszula's house under that premise. Instead, he raped her, before strangling her while maintaining eye contact so "he could see the light go out", before leaving her body in the bathtub and stealing some items from her house.
