Student Activities Rule Change – Blinn TEAM Students as Officers

- Whereas: Current students participating in Blinn TEAM are actively participating members in many of the student organizations on campus, and are considered Aggies just the same; and
- Whereas: The Divisions of Student Affairs at Texas A&M University and Blinn College have partnered to provide Blinn TEAM participants the full array of programs and services available on each campus through the most convenient means possible; and
- Whereas: Blinn TEAM students pay the same student fees per credit hour that full- and part-time A&M students do, such as the Student Service Fee, Rec Center Fee, and the Computer Access Fee, as well as paying the same per credit hour rate for tuition for all classes taken at A&M; and

Whereas: Blinn TEAM students currently cannot join sororities, participate in intramural sports or sports clubs, or hold an officer position in any recognized student organization; and,

Whereas: An individual organization retains the right to raise the standards for its officers (i.e. GPR, number of hours, previous experience, etc.) and that no change in the Student Activities Student Organizational Rules may remove that right.

Therefore

Let it be

Enacted: The Student Government Association supports a change to the Student Activities Student Organizational Rules in order to allow Blinn TEAM students to hold officer positions in recognized organizations at Texas A&M.
